

JOHN J. KOSAR, CMT

John Kosar CMT is the Chief Market Strategist of Asbury Research, a firm he launched in 2005. John has more than 40 years of experience analyzing, forecasting, and trading global financial markets. Asbury Research is a Registered Investment Advisor (RIA) that provides data-driven technical and quantitative investment research and asset management to professional and private investors. Asbury Research has been recognized as one of the Top Five Investment Research Services

Providers in 2024 by Financials Services Review.

John began his career in 1980 on the Chicago Mercantile Exchange trading floor and spent the next 17 years there, acquiring a practical, real-world education on how the US financial markets work from the inside out. This experience, early in his career, became the foundation for his unique analytical approach and deep understanding of what really drives financial asset prices. John's proprietary blend of technical and quantitative inputs, and Asbury Research's own quantitative models and investment portfolios, are more forward-looking, agile, and actionable than the typical Wall Street approach.

John is very visible in the media. He is a regular contributor to Forbes, Investors Business Daily, The Schwab Network, and StockCharts.com, and has been providing educational webinars for Fidelity Investments for the past decade.

John has also been quoted by prominent US and global financial news organizations throughout his career including The Wall Street Journal, MarketWatch.com, Barron's, Yahoo! Finance, and Reuters. John has also been a frequent expert guest on financial television including CNBC, Fox Business, and Bloomberg, and is a frequent speaker at financial events across the country presented by organizations including the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) Society, the National Association of Active Investment Managers (NAAIM), the CMT (Chartered Market Technician) Association, and the American Association of Individual Investors (AAII).

John was awarded the Chartered Market Technician (CMT) designation in 1999, served as Vice President of the CMT Association from 2004 to 2006, and was a member of its Board of Directors from 2002 to 2006. Previously, John was a trader, analyst, and strategist for several top firms including Shearson American Express, NatWest Markets, Greenwich Capital Markets, and Deutsche Bank.
